The Report will identify key steps that should be taken to unify the Park and provide a unique identity.

2.15 Project Management: Regular coordination/communication with the City's Project Manager Shawn Wagner; Bi-weekly progress meetings with the Staff Committee; Daily Team communication; Schedule tracking/updates; Monthly Progress Reports.

Task 3 – Environmental Resources Inventory and Analysis

3.0 Collection and Review of Existing Plans, Studies, Inventories, and Assessments

- The OA Team will obtain and review available plans, studies, inventories and assessments that are relevant to the natural resources of the Park. The purpose of this task will be to identify and organize relevant information, identify potential gaps in the data and assessments, and guide subsequent tasks involving ground-truthing, analysis and assessment, and opportunities and constraints mapping.

3.1 Aerial Photo Review

- For the portion of Papago Park within the City of Phoenix, The OA Team will incorporate and update the existing mapping developed as part of the 1998 City of Phoenix Wildlife Habitat Inventory by comparing aerial photography for that year with that of the most recent year available. Particularly noted will be changes from natural to developed land uses, changes in the extent and/or locations of disturbance areas (e.g., trail networks, recreational areas), changes in vegetation type or density, and major changes in land use patterns adjacent to the Park. The major changes identified will be incorporated into a GIS database.
- For those portions of the park not included in the 1998 mapping effort, The OA Team will use recent aerial photography and field reconnaissance to map land use cover, vegetation type, and disturbance areas.

3.2 Biological Field Reconnaissance

- The OA Team will complete a field reconnaissance of the Park to ground-truth land use/cover changes identified as a result of aerial photo interpretation and to identify other recent changes in natural resource conditions not apparent on aerial photos. The latter may include changes in plant community composition, proliferation of invasive plant species, and expansion or contraction of human recreational and other disturbances. The information collected on existing conditions will provide the first layer for rating vegetation and habitat quality within the park.

3.3 Cultural Resources Background Research (Class I Inventory)

- Background research will involve data gathering at the Arizona State Museum (ASM) and a thorough AZSITE search as well as visits to the databases maintained by the City of Phoenix' Pueblo Grande Museum, the State Historic Preservation Office (SHPO), and the Salt River Pima Maricopa Indian Community (SRPMIC), and an examination of General Land Office (GLO) plats maintained by the Bureau of Land Management (BLM). The National Register along with state and local registers also will be searched. The intent of the Class I Inventory will be to identify existing relevant surveys and any cultural resources that may be known within the park. The Class I inventory will cover the entire park, but because we will not be performing a survey (which would have required that we also do a records search for a buffer beyond the survey area), the Class I will not address a buffer surrounding the park.

3.4 Assessment of Current Conditions of Known Cultural Properties and Eligibility Assessments

- Ideally, The OA Team will conduct an on-site examination of all known cultural resources within the park. Because all of the known properties were recorded over 10 years ago (and some over 30 years ago), it will be necessary to determine their present condition. This information could lead to a reassessment of the National Register eligibility of those properties for which eligibility recommendations were previously prepared. Eligibility assessments will also be required for those properties that were not assessed previously. Properties to be included in this examination are primarily archaeological (prehistoric and historic in age), at least one traditional cultural property or sacred site, and a number of architectural properties (for example, Hunt's family tomb, Civilian Conservation Corps developments, remnants of the WWII Japanese internment camp, and a historical museum) are to be included. A brief report documenting these assessments will be necessary. These efforts will require the expertise of archaeologists, architectural historians, and ethnographers. The ethnographer will work closely with tribal communities, especially the SRPMIC, to collect information on traditional cultural properties. A brief report documenting these assessments will be prepared.

3.5 Constraints and Opportunities Mapping and Supporting Documentation

- Based on review of previous documents and the results of aerial photo interpretation and ground-truthing, The OA Team will identify constraints and opportunities related to the preservation and/or restoration and education/interpretation of natural and cultural resources within the park. Mapping will be an instrumental tool in assessing the spatial relationships between physical, natural, and cultural resources and the existing human-made facilities/infrastructure. Particular attention will be given to the expanse and location of resources, which are important in assessing their sensitivity to human disturbance, and potential to provide public enjoyment, education, and interpretation. For biological resources, a qualitative rating system will be used to categorize specific areas according to factors such as overall ecological condition, contiguous size, degree of fragmentation or disturbance, type and extent of adjacent developed land uses, and intensity of recreational use. Subsequently, specific areas will be ranked for their preservation and/or restoration potential based on ecological benefit and feasibility. Areas with greater potential for preservation and/or restoration will be assigned relatively high ranks. Conversely, highly disturbed and fragmented areas with little potential for meaningful preservation or restoration will be assigned a low rank. A summary report will be prepared that presents existing conditions, identifies opportunities for preservation or restoration of remaining natural areas, and describes the rating/ranking process used.
- The constraints and opportunities task will also include the mapping of known cultural resources. Because of the sensitive nature of some types of cultural resources (archaeological sites and traditional cultural properties or sacred sites), this locational information will not be presented to the general public. The OA Team is prepared to assist in presenting this information to the public in such a way that the locations of sensitive resources will not be compromised. The cultural properties will be sorted into those that can be protected in-place and those in danger of disturbance and that therefore might need to be subject to some form of treatment, such as archaeological data recovery or architectural stabilization. Properties slated for in-place preservation will fall into two categories: those for which public interpretation and celebration is appropriate, and those whose locations should not be publicly disclosed to protect them from either intentional or inadvertent vandalism or other inappropriate behavior. The latter typically include archaeological sites and traditional cultural properties. Still others may require stabilization, or if they cannot be preserved in place, data recovery or documentation. Explanatory text will accompany the map to designate different types of cultural resources and to sort among treatment options. The constraints and opportunities task will serve as a tool to strike a balance between public use and the protection and preservation of these resources for the future.

- The summary report will be supported by GIS-generated graphics that depict areas of opportunities and constraints. The opportunities and constraints mapping will be one of the tools used in the development of master plan alternatives.

- 3.6 Project Management: Regular coordination/communication with the City's Project Manager Shawn Wagner; Bi-weekly progress meetings with the Staff Committee; Daily Team communication; Schedule tracking/updates; Monthly Progress Reports.

Task 4 – Facilities/Program Inventory and Analysis

- 4.0 Document Review: Data Collection: The OA Team will collect, log, and review any remaining data and information that we do not currently maintain to facilitate a thorough understanding of the project background. Data and information to be collected include but not limited to:

- Programs and Services
 - Current contracts with on site providers including expiration dates and annual reports
 - Existing programming occurring on site throughout the year
 - Participant data including number of persons, demographics and other available information, organized by program and partner
- Operations and Finances
 - Financial information (budgets and related reports) on existing operations of Papago Park. Five years of data preferred.
 - Staffing levels including organization charts by partner
 - Marketing plans for each partner involved in the project
- Facility and Site

- Governance
 - Hold initial meeting with key partner agency staff and to present introduction of project and discuss coordination points related to organizational development and governance models. In addition, the project team will attend an initial coordination meeting with all partners involved in the project.

4.1 Demographic Analysis: The OA Team will perform a demographic analysis based on previous information collected and maintained by Papago Park including the 2000 Census data along with the 2008 updated population projections. If the Park does not have current projections by census tract, the demographic data can be obtained from Environmental Systems Research Institute, Inc. (ESRI), the largest research and development organization dedicated to Geographical Information Systems (GIS) and specializing in population projections and market trends; for comparison purposes data will also be obtained from the U.S. Census Bureau.. This analysis will provide an understanding of the demographic environment for the following reasons:

- To understand the market areas being served by the park and distinguish customer groups.
- To determine changes that is occurring in the park and assists in making proactive decisions to accommodate those shifts.
- Provide the basis for Equity Mapping and Service Area Analysis
- The Park's demographic analysis will be based on US 2000 Census information, 2008 updated projections, and 5, 10, and 20 year projections, as well as projected build-out population. The following demographic characteristics will be included:
 - Population density
 - Age Distribution
 - Households
 - Gender
 - Ethnicity
 - Household Income

4.2 Facilities Inventory: The OA Team will tour Papago Park to get an understanding of the facilities and programs offered to compile detailed inventory. This tour will be performed with the park's operation, maintenance and program staff to understand the issues these staff members face on a daily basis, as well as to gather general assessment data.

4.3 Park Facilities Standards Review: The OA Team will review and confirm, modify or add to existing park classifications and facility standards for all park sites and amenities. These classifications will consider population served, length of stay, and amenity types within park. Facility standards include major amenities and the population served per facility. Any new or modified classification or standard will be approved as required.

4.4 Development of Preliminary Hierarchy and Sign Location Plan: The Project Team will review the Park Facilities standards review, and develop an appropriate program that answers to the needs of the park

- 4.5 Program Analysis: The OA Team will perform an assessment of recreation programs managed by the Park. The program review will assess the strengths and weaknesses of the major programming areas, opportunities in the market to seek out and build on, and the potential threats to identify and plan against. The evaluation will incorporate, but not limited to:
- Customer service plan
 - Contractual instructor standards
 - Marketing and market share
 - Program facilities
 - Capacity utilization

Papago Park will assist in contacting the identified benchmark systems to expedite the process. This will contain qualitative and quantitative reviews that could include the identification of the provider programs, partnership agreements, scope and needs of users, staffing, maintenance standards, budget, programs provided, amenities, target market.
- 4.7 Facility Needs Assessment: The OA Team will synthesize the findings from the Community/Stakeholder input, citizen survey results (optional), trends analysis, benchmark analysis, program review and field audits into a written facility needs assessment. This will list and prioritize facility, amenities, and program needs for Papago Park and provide guidance for the Master Plan Alternatives.

Guidelines for Implementation of Health Insurance

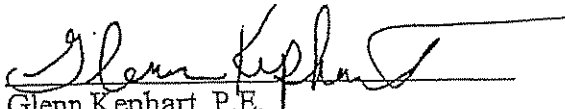

These Guidelines are provided for purposes of implementing Resolution No. 2000.73, which requires all employees of prime consultants, general contractors and major subconsultants and subcontractors to have health insurance and to offer health insurance to their eligible dependants, as determined at the start of each project. Questions regarding these guidelines should be directed to the City of Tempe Engineering Division at (480) 350-8200.

1. All Prime Consultants who enter into a Public Works contract or General Contractors who bid on Public Works projects that are advertised for bid and enter into a contract in excess of $30,000 with the City of Tempe after January 1, 2001, are required to sign an affidavit in the form attached hereto. The prime consultant or general contractor shall require that all major subconsultants or subcontractors, defined as entities doing work in excess of $30,000, comply with the health insurance requirements. In signing the affidavit, prime consultants and general contractors may refer to and rely upon these Guidelines for interpretation.
2. Health insurance is required for permanent employees who work for the consultant/contractor more than one hundred and twenty (120) days in any calendar year. A "work day" consists of any time within a twenty-four hour period, regardless of number of hours, that the individual is paid. This requirement excludes students working part-time who are enrolled in a recognized educational institution. Many companies have a grace period or a qualifying period prior to commencement of insurance coverage, which is acceptable so long as the employee coverage begins by the 120th day of contract signing. Temporary employees will be covered to the same extent as the City of Tempe covers temporary employees as determined at the start of each project.
3. If a contractor is a "Union" shop and withholds union dues from employees for health insurance coverage that is also offered to their eligible dependents and meets all City requirements, the Contractor may so note on the required affidavit.
4. The health insurance requirements herein apply to all employees that are directly involved with the City of Tempe project including support and administrative personnel.
5. Health insurance coverage must be maintained during the entire time of the contract, including any warranty periods, with the City.
6. All complaints concerning violations of the health insurance requirements shall be filed by an employee, in writing, with the Public Works Department, within thirty (30) days from discovery of the violation. An administrative hearing will be held before the Public Works Manager, and a written decision of findings will be provided to the parties to the hearing within ten (10) days thereafter. Appeal from the decision of the Public Works Manager may be made within ten (10) days of the date of the decision by filing a notice of appeal in writing with the Public Works Department. If an appeal is timely filed, an administrative hearing will be held before an administrative hearing officer appointed by the City Manager. The decision of the administrative hearing officer shall be final.

7. In the event of a finding by the City of a violation of the insurance provisions, the company in violation of the provision shall be barred from bidding on, or entering into, any public works contract with the City for a minimum period of three (3) years.
8. All consultants and contractors subject to the health insurance requirements shall post, in English and Spanish, notice of the health insurance requirements at their office and at the job site. Signs for posting will be provided by the City.

These "Guidelines for Implementation of Health Insurance", issued and dated this 21st day of August, 2002, hereby amend all guidelines previously issued.
