- E. Lagman stated that the Tempe Historical Museum Public Art Project Call for Work will be forwarded to the Public Art/AIPD Committee upon its completion.

Agenda Item 5 – Public Art/AIPD Update

- E. Lagman announced that artist Carl Cheng is restoring “Tilted Landscape.” Cheng removed all loose flagstone pieces and hopes to highlight the piece using additional lighting. A temporary fence has been placed around the piece in the planting mote to ensure public safety during the restoration process.
- E. Lagman stated that the Maple Ash Neighborhood Association is working with artist Nina Solomon to finish its third artist-adorned standpipe. E. Lagman encouraged the committee to view the standpipe located at the corner of Ash and 10th St.
- E. Lagman announced that ADOT intends to widen the 202 East; this process will affect the Red Mountain Freeway Mural. Lagman has contacted artist Rebecca Ross who contacted artist Jeff East and Tempe Crane to explore the possibility of safely removing the mural’s ten panels of artwork. The city of Tempe Cultural Services Division will provide temporary storage of the artwork.
- E. Lagman announced that Peanut Butter and Jam, a city of Tempe Cultural Services Division event, is taking place from 10 – 11 a.m. on April 21 in the Tempe Community Center Complex Courtyard. The Cultural Services Division is taking initiative to try new marketing strategies as a means to increase attendance at the event.
- B. Fahlman inquired about the public art installation at the downtown Transit Center. E. Lagman stated that she has concerns about the placement of the glass lighting in the gabion wall.

- Lise Hawkos stated that she'd like additional information regarding the public art pieces at Tempe Marketplace. Hawkos expressed that the current stylons are not communicating art to the public; Hawkos added that she'd like to see them changed out.

Meeting adjourned by Betsy Fahlman at 5:47 p.m.
